Centova Cast Nulled 3

The image shows two overlapping windows. On the left is the CentovaCast web interface, displaying a navigation menu with options like General, Configuration, Statistics, Server, AutoDJ, and Session. The main content area shows 'DJ Management' and 'DJ Accounts' with a list of DJ Bobo. On the right is the SAM Broadcaster application, with the 'MP3 (Normal) Encoder & Streamer configuration' dialog box open. The dialog has tabs for Converter, Server Details, and Stream Archive. Under 'Server Details', 'ShoutCast' is selected. Fields include Server IP (94.23.8.191), Server Port (8616), and Password (empty). A red arrow points to the Password field. An orange text box below the dialog contains the text: 'These two dates must be entered in the following manner: djtest:testdj'. Another orange text box below that says: 'Now we need to use the username and password created in Centova Cast Dj Account where the username is : djtest and the password: testdj'. The SAM Broadcaster interface also shows an 'Encoders' window with a table of encoder settings.
